

VIRGINIA BID

Would Take the Statue and Wants It

The Chronicle's suggestion that this city should be the site selected for the Mackay statue meets with general approval not only on the Comstock, but is endorsed by a majority of State exchanges. Sculptor Borglum, during his recent visit here, said that Clarence H. Mackay will donate the statue to the State without designating any particular site for it and that he would not doubt be pleased to gratify people of the Comstock should they express a desire to have this city selected, where the late J. H. Mackay spent the best years of his life and laid the foundation for the colossal fortune represented by his estate.

By placing the statue on the lawn at the Con. Virginia office it will be directly over the ground in which the great bonanza in that mine was discovered and in front of the premises where Mr. Mackay spent most of his time, and as there are always watchmen on the ground day and night there would be no possibility of its being defaced. Dr. Stubbs has put in a plea to have Reno selected as the site for the statue. A town never visited by Mr. Mackay except in passing through there on route to and from this city. A concerted movement of citizens of the Comstock to petition Clarence Mackay to have this city selected as the site, is all that is necessary to obtain his consent to the request and a check for that purpose has been sent to him.

Mehlens-Shaw

On Monday last Miss Bessie Shaw, the youngest daughter of Col. H. G. Shaw, formerly editor of the Virginia Enterprise and a niece of Controller Davis, was married in San Francisco at the residence of the bride to Arthur Mehlens, a well known diplomat of that city.

Miss Shaw has visited relatives in Carson and has many warm friends here, on whose behalf the Appeal extends the most hearty congratulations.

Manhattan's Jail

The new camp of Manhattan has not reached the dignity of being the possession of a real jail or calabos. Like Bullfrog, they were compelled to devise some other means of punishment for offenders. When a man becomes too unruly and refuses to be pacified the constable takes possession of him, leads him to a tall cedar tree in a gulch, places his arms around it and locks the darbies to his wrists. At first the victim is often obstreperous and makes futile attempts to free himself, but the darbies and the tree are unmovable. Soon he becomes reconciled to his fate and after an hour or so becomes quite docile. Then he is given a's liberty and seeks the first resort to thaw out and shake the snow from his person.

Death of Patrick Nulty

Patrick Nulty, one of the oldest residents of this city, passed away early yesterday morning. Last week he was taken ill with pneumonia and apparently recovered, when taken with a relapse. He grew rapidly worse and in spite of the best of home care and a physician's service he died.

Patrick Nulty, was a native of County Meath, Ireland, and was born 65 years ago on the 17th of March. He leaves a devoted wife, three sons, James, Joseph, and John two daughters Mrs. J. Coleman and Mrs. W. F. Cross and eight grandchildren to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place Friday, March 9, at 2 p. m. from the Catholic church.

THE STOCK SOLD

Manhattan-Carson Stock Jumped at by the Buyers

The Manhattan-Carson mining stock which was placed on the market Monday morning both in this city and Tonopah, went off with such a rush that a number of buyers in this city were shut out at the original price of fifteen cents per share. The allotment for Carson was small but it went off inside of twenty four hours, and telegram received from F. W. Duffer, the fiscal agent at Tonopah stated that the entire amount of one hundred thousand shares was disposed of and to stop any further sales. Those who wish to get any of the stock will have to apply through the banks or any of the brokers, who will purchase from the San Francisco market in the future, as the management intends to stay with its arrangement to only sell the one hundred thousand shares, and this is solely for development purposes.

Messrs Esser and Mighels will leave for the scene of action in a few days and make arrangements for Company's development. A shaft is to be sunk where it will catch the big ledge that is on the property, which gives every promise of making one of the big bonanzas of the camp.

There is cash enough in the treasury to do a great deal of work and the directors and management intends to use it to the best advantage for the stockholders.

The action of the claim is as usual in this city in Manhattan and with the present showing that is on the ground and the strikes that surround the ground on every side there is every reason to believe that the stock will be one of the highest priced on the entire list. A flattering offer was made yesterday for a big block, which was declined, as the owners believe that they have as good ground as any in the camp.

New Paper in Reno

Bert Crawford, a well known newspaper man has launched a new weekly in Reno called the Reno Federation. It is a newsey and well edited sheet and full of live interesting matter. The Federation looks as if it had come to stay.

WHERE IS VAN DUZER

Nevada's Congressman Not in Evidence at Washington

This a question which is being frequently asked all over the state of Nevada. His proper place at the present time is on the floor of the House of Representatives in Washington D. C. It is claimed that he has not been seen there this session. No one seems to know where he is. The writer was in Washington last winter and could find no one who knew anything about him.

Measures have come up which he introduced and which vitally effect the interests of Nevada. They were lost for want of any one there to explain their intent.

Mr. Van Duzer was elected by the people to attend and represent not only his constituents but the entire state in the Lower House. His continued absence is discreditable and the cause if rumors are true regarding it, still more so. The Appeal does not care to state the reasons ascribed for his absence until it can be more positively informed. If the rumors are true his resignation would be the best possible thing under the circumstances. At the present time Nevada is without representation in Congress. Our Senators Newlands and Nixon are there and both ably representing their Nevada constituents.

Will Be Reopened

C. W. Clapp, of the Champion Mining Company of Kansas City, who owns the old Galena mine at Washoe has returned to that place from the mine, accompanied by F. P. Bath, who has a number of shares in the property including high rights of the underground workings.

Mr. Clapp states that his company is going to do an extensive and improvements on the property in the near future. —Gazette.

Would Have to Wait

There is still a chance for the late bridge to be erected outside the Capitol grounds. There are plenty of property owners in Carson who would be willing to sell partly for the site and wait until the Legislature pass the bill. This would be necessary as the new proposition of $10,000 will be exhausted in the completion of the building.

O. A. Turner, the Tonopah millionaire, has purchased four claims in Ely for $20,000. Six thousand dollars was paid down.

The News tell of a strike of ore in the Great Bend mine at Goldfield, carrying 200 ounces in gold and 60 per cent tellurium per ton.

A PRODUCT OF NEVADA

Mr. Borglum Corrects a Misapprehension Regarding Statue

Carson City, Nevada, March 7, 1906. To the Editor of the Appeal:

Permit me to correct what seems to me to be a misapprehension regarding the Mackay statue. My contract with Mr. Clarence Mackay calls for a bronze statue of a miner in a miner's working clothes, with pick and ore in hand. This figure is to be made in bronze and placed upon a plinth of quartz if a block of sufficient size can be procured. The pedestal below, on which the whole is to rest, to be of Nevada marble. If it were possible to execute bronze castings in Nevada the entire work could be finished here.

Being a Nevadan myself, I will, as a matter of State pride, make every endeavor to meet Mr. Mackay's desire to make the statue symbolic of one of the great industries of the State, and itself a product of the State.

The question of portraiture of John W. Mackay becomes merely an incident in the work.

Yours very truly,
GUTZON BORGLUM.

Plans Big Smelter

LOS ANGELES, March 6.—An evening paper states that the recent visit of Charles M. Schwab to this city, which culminated yesterday in Schwab's lecture before the Chamber of Commerce, was for the purpose primarily of making preliminary steps toward the development of a giant smelter in Los Angeles for the development of large mining properties in Nevada, presently required by Schwab and associates.

Far from well when he reached Los Angeles Schwab was unable to leave his hotel yesterday and only with great effort was able to swing his private car from the Los Angeles Club.

Reached Costa Rica

Several friends of H. H. Holman received letters yesterday announcing the safe arrival of himself and wife at the mine in Costa Rica. The trip was somewhat exciting two lighted sailboats eight men going down, but they were saved by a fishing crew. Two lighters were lost, together with over a thousand dollars worth of coffee. —Enterprise.

The Leisure Hour Club

There was a pleasant meeting of the Leisure Hour Club last evening. Mr. Gutzon Borglum the sculptor was the guest of honor and on being presented made a short talk on his mission to Nevada.

There was also exhibited a bronze entitled "The Boer" and a child's head in plaster the work of the artist. Both are the property of Mrs. Sam Davis. They were much admired and will shortly be exhibited on Main Street. After the reading of some excellent papers the Club closed its evening's entertainment with refreshments.

The Crooked Fights

The inside of the Prisoner fight where Tennis was killed simply means that the fighting trust of that city put a man in the ring out of condition and put him there for the sole purpose of making a pool robbery.

They succeeded so well in their nefarious plans that the victim died.

The bogus doctor who gave a certificate that the man was in condition has disappeared. The whole thing savors of the same rottenness that is sport at the Bay sinks with the promoters ought to search him. They will not suffer for their acts as they have the pull that counts.

The Play

The Baltimore Beauties held the boards at the opera house last evening, and while a number of comic attractions were on, yet the opera house was fairly well filled. The plots of the same sort as has been seen here all winter, but the specialties were good and thoroughly enjoyed as those present. Some funny stunts were given by the magicians, who, as they state were the worst ever, and evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

Dissolution of Partnership

The copartnership heretofore existing under the style and name of Petersen and Springmeyer, in the City of Carson, County of Ormsby, has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Petersen having purchased the entire interest of C. H. Springmeyer. Mr. Petersen will pay all outstanding claims against said firm and will collect all claims due the firm.

The Blue Jay, Ludwig and Blue-stone copper properties near Yerington, Lyon county have been acquired by Idaho capitalists and active development work will soon begin.

Here's a Tip Worth Taking

Next time you need clothes, remember that garments made to your order by the so-much-talked-about International Tailoring Co., of New York, Chicago and San Francisco, costs no more than ordinary ready-mades of the better grades.

And when you see what perfect-fitting, stylishly-cut, finely-finished garments they turn out for comparatively so little money, you'll wonder how any man can buy ready-made clothes instead of having this famous firm, the largest custom tailoring concern in the world, make them to measure for him.
